

Summer at the Farmland Museum

The Farmland Museum
& Denny Abbey,
Denny Abbey, Ely Road
Waterbeach, Cambridge
CB25 9PQ
01223 860 988

Every ticket allows free entry for 12 months!
Why not come back each week for more fun?*

FENLAND FARMING WEEK

29th July – 1st August

Follow the story of Fenland Farming from past to present before getting on with our trail and other farming activities.

MEDIEVAL WEEK

12th – 15th August

Learn all about Medieval crafts, weaponry - and you might even see a battle or two! While you're here, follow the medieval trail and do some arts and crafts.

1940S WEEK

26th – 28th August

Learn about 1940s life at 1940s week at the Farmland Museum. See what 1940s life was like, follow our trail and crack on with some arts and crafts.

ARCHAEOLOGY WEEK

23rd – 25th July

Our site holds more than 1000 years of history, so why not follow the archaeology trail and do some archaeology arts and crafts while you're here!

TEDDY BEARS' PICNIC

WEEK 5th – 8th August

If you go down to the Farmland Museum this week, bring your teddy bear to join in the fun! Enjoy a teddy bears' picnic from our café and some traditional games.

TUDOR WEEK

19th – 22nd August

Did you know that Denny Abbey was a Tudor farmhouse? Join us to learn all about the Tudor times! Follow our Tudor trail and do some arts and crafts while you're here!

Book your tickets now at www.dennyfarmlandmuseum.org.uk

*Annual pass not valid for entry on Special Event days.