Vacancy: Cafe Assistant
Seasonal, Part-Time contract
Mid-March to end of October 2022

Salary: National Minimum Wage

The post is a flexible hours position within our open days, Thursday – Sunday from mid-March to end of October.

The post holder will also be required to work some Bank Holiday Mondays.

The postholder will mainly be required to assist during peak periods in the day (10:30am-3:30pm) with a degree of flexibility for peak/low season as required.

The Farmland Museum and Denny Abbey is seeking a friendly, hard-working person to work in our Docky Box Cafe. Applicants should have a flexible approach to work, a can-do attitude and a willingness to 'pitch in' and get things done. Exceptional customer service skills and the ability to relate to people are essential.

During the last year we have refurbished and expanded our café offer, we are proud of what we have achieved and are looking for someone to join us at an exciting point in the development of our story.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Working in our cafe
- Serving customers
- Taking orders
- Understanding food safety and allergen information
- Baking, preparing and making food items
- Producing barista style hot drinks and some cold drinks
- Clearing tables
- Washing up
- Processing payments and cashing up
- Ordering stock
- Cleaning the café
- Other general duties as required

Experience in hospitality is useful along with a food hygiene certificate and barista skills, but training can be provided. Good communication and numeracy skills are required.

Please note that own transport is essential to access the museum.

The Farmland Museum and Denny Abbey tells an 850 year story of farming, communities and life in the Cambridgeshire Fens. A family-friendly museum located in a beautiful, rural setting close to Cambridge, North of Waterbeach just off the A10, the Farmland Museum is an independent charitable trust and manages the adjacent Denny Abbey on behalf of English Heritage. For more information on the museum visit

The Farmland Museum is run by a Board of volunteer Trustees, with a small team of staff, and many supporting volunteers.

The museum is open to the public from the end of March through to October, every Thursday to Sunday from 10am until 4pm. Family activities run each Thursday and Friday in the school holidays, and a variety of events take place on weekends and Bank Holidays throughout the season, including a May Day celebration and 1940s weekend.

Applications should take the form of an email or letter, detailing why you would be a good fit for the role and giving examples of relevant experience.

Please submit applications by email to sarah.michael@farmlandmuseum.org.uk

This vacancy will remain open until we have appointed.

If you have any questions about the role, please contact Sarah Michael, Museum Manager, on 01223 860 988 or at sarah.michael@farmlandmuseum.org.uk
